FINANCIAL AND COMMBRCIAL

Stocks, Money, Exchange, Bonds, Grain, Cotton, Provisions, Etc.

New York, March 14.-To-day's stock New York, March 14.—To-day's stock market was largely in professional hands and trading was congested in the specialties again. The professional contingent, who have bought stocks to discount the enactment of the currency law, sold to-day to realize. Pressure from this source was not heavy, but the demand for stocks was so light that the dribbling offerings made steady inroads upon prices, carrying a few of the standard railroad stocks off a point during the course of the late trading.

The movement of prices in the spe-steady inroads upon prices, carrying a few of the standard railroad stocks off a point during the course of the late trading.

The movement of prices in the specialties was wider, due to special causes. Sugar was sold from Boston, where offers were made of the next dividend below the 1½ per cent. rate last December on large accounts of stocks. Brooklyn Transit suffered from the refusal of the State railroad commission to defer the quarterly report. The rubber stocks felt the unfavorable influence of the pleasant weather, accompanied with stories of large stocks to be carried over till next season. People's Gas was sold afresh on Chicago orders.

The most conspicuous movement of the day was in Third Avenue, which sold down to 56 in the morning, but shot up to 66 late in the day after the publication and the receiver's report, driving the bears to cover with a scramble. The stock reacted three and a half and fluctuated feverishly, closing with a net gain of 5 points. For the most part the speculative attitude is one of continued waiting for the results of the new financial law to manifest themselves. A feeling of doubt increases that, however prompt may be these results, they will not avail to effect the Continued drain during the week of bank resources in time to effect the Saturday bank statement. This beling the case, that statement is likely to show surplus reserves practically wiped out. To-morrow is the date set for the disbursement of quite a large amount of dividends, including that of $20 per share on the stock of the Standard Oll Company. The dividend alone will amount in the aggregatic to $20,000,000. Several million additional will be disbursed as dividends on various stocks. This may reasonably be expected to have some effect on to-morrow's money market. To-day rates for money were firmly held, but hankers were eager to place loans for the longer periods, while borrowers were unwilling to bid for any but short time loans, clearly reflecting the expectation of easier conditions near at hand. February'

United States new 4's declined ¾ and the 5's ¼ in the bid price.

The total sales of stock to-day were 856,000 shares.
